Dear Honorable Magistrate Justice Peck:

I, Jane Best-Simpson under the penalties of perjury do hereby affirm the following to be true: I contacted your honor's secretary, Ms. Patricia Blake today on October 4, 2007, to inform her that a close relative of my mine died on October 2, 2007, and I was just informed this afternoon that the funeral will be on Monday October 8 and the burial will take place on Tuesday October 9, 2007; consequently, I will not be able to complete the mandatory initial discovery to opposing counsel by October 9, 2007 as set forth in the Court's Revised Scheduling Order dated September 5, 2007.

Index no. : 07 CV 2683 (BSJ) (AJP) - Request for change by (AJP) of date for submission on Mandatory Initial disclosure Rule 26(a)(1), Fed.R.Civ.P. from October 9, 2007 to October 15, 2007 - Mutually consented to by all counsel

Therefore, I am requesting that your Honor grant an extension of time from October 9, 2007 to October 15, 2007 for compliance with mandatory initial disclosure. I contacted the law office of Gallagher, Gosseen, Faller and Crowley today and spoke to Ms. McCallister the Legal Assistant to Mr. Robert Gosseen (counsel for Gallagher Gosseen Faller and Crowley and the New York Organ Donor Network, et. al) and Mr. Eric Proshansky, Esq. of the Corporation Counsel (Counsel for the New York City Commission on Human Rights et al.) and both have consented to the adjourned date of October 15, 2007 in which to respond to the mandatory initial discovery pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1) P. of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

This is the second adjournment of the mandatory initial discovery date. I understand from Ms. Blake, that your Honor is away at a pre-scheduled conference and will not return until Tuesday morning October 9, 2007, but I was to send the request for an extension of time to the Court today.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jane Best-Simpson
